Death and the Trumpets of Tuscany Hazel Wynn Jones

Hazel Wynn Jones, herself a continuity girl during the 'fifties, has drawn on her own experience and her knowledge of Italy to create a first class novel as delightful as it is exciting. To the normal chaos of film-making in Rome in the boom years of the fifties, an explosive mixture of different nationalities had been assembled by the producer-director for THE TRUMPETS OF TUSCANY. The cast list also included a guest star, uninvited and unwelcome, whose name was Death. The first time Death struck was in Venice, and is victim was one of the stars. Yet the business of film-making went on until the final spectacular scene, when the murderer was dramatically revealed.
