Dealing with you isn't easy, Blake Adams! You're a pain in the ass!
If it weren't for the money, I would've never agreed to do this, especially not with you!

Blake:

The only thing that mattered to me was having the baby that my late wife and I could never have. I shouldn't have let the surrogate agency talk me into using Tasha Williams, but she was my only option – or so they said. But now, I've got a black baby that should have been born white. Tasha may have duped me, but I'm not letting her off the hook. The contract says the baby is mine and there's nothing she can do about it.

Tasha:

When I found the surrogate ad, all I wanted to do was make some quick bank to move into a better neighborhood with my four-year-old daughter, Nikki. Now I've got a baby that I want, with a piece of paper that says I can't have him. But I promise he will be part of our lives – contract or not. And be claimed by Blake Adams? He better not count on it.

The Baby is Mine is a complete, standalone BWWM romance novel with no cliffhanger. It contains some intense, steamy scenes and is not recommended for readers under 18. What about a happy ending? You'll have to read to find out!
