***A Completely Clean Story With NO CLIFFHANGER*****

Delonda had the next few weeks planned like clockwork. She had put everything she had into this audition and ballet was her whole life. There was no way she wasn't going to get what she worked so hard for.

But when an old childhood nemesis comes back into her life, everything seems to be turned upside down. Matt was always a bad boy, someone who rubbed Delonda the wrong way when they were growing up. But as an adult it seems he turned everything around and now ran a very successful business.

What Delonda never expected was for their encounter to lead to a passionate love session when she was at her weakest. But they say there is always a silver lining and as the weeks pass it turns out Delonda was pregnant with twins!

From this point everything in her world changes, and her and Matt do their best to really get to know each other, and most of all learn to love, laugh and cherish each other with their new family on the way.
