The Power of Personal Storytelling Jack Maguire

You're stuck in an endless, dull conversation. As the speaker drones on, your mind wanders, until you hear the words, "I remember once when I was.." Your ears perk up. You become engrossed. An anecdote unfolds, and suddenly, the speaker is alive and excited and you know just what he means. He has used the age-old technique of storytelling to powerfully get his point across, capturing your attention through a well-told narrative of personal experience that invited you to relate to his message on an intimate level. In The Power of Personal Storytelling, professional storyteller Jack Maguire explains how to mine your memories to communicate more effectively, enhance personal and professional relationships, and understand yourself better so that you can better understand others. Step by step, he illustrates how shaping and expressing true stories about our lives and those of the people we've known can: * connect us more vitally with others; * develop our creativity; * strengthen our humor, courage, and confidence; and * render our lives more memorable. Whether you're a teacher or a salesman, a minister or a parent, personal storytelling can help improve the key relationships in your life while investing your memories with more meaning.

Tessa Krieger:

As a scholar exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher asked them to go to the library or even make summary for some reserve, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's internal or real their interest. They just do what the professor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring along with can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important for you. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we wish. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this The Power of Personal Storytelling can make you feel more interested to read.
