The Destructors and Other Stories Graham Greene

From a childish fear of the dark in "The End of the Party" to the chilling conclusion of the "Destructors" and the all-consuming selfishness of "May We Borrow Your Husband", this collection opens with three of Greene's most disturbing stories. Things take a surreal turn in "Under the Garden" before finally blossoming for a moment in "Two Gentle People", then there's a detective story and a brush with Greene's sardonic wit to finish.

Extremely enjoyable and easy to dip in and out of...

- "The Destructors"
- "The End of the Party"
- "Under the Garden"
- "A Discovery in the Woods"
- "May We Borrow Your Husband"
- "Mortmain"
- "The Invisible Japanese Gentleman"
- "Two Gentle People"
- "Murder for the Wrong Reason"
- "The Man Who Stole the Eiffel Tower"
