She wanted to devour him, she wanted him in her mouth, to taste him and feel him throb in the back of her throat. She pulled away and pushed him back and hopped down from the counter. Initially, he thought he had done something wrong but she grabbed his hand and led him to the living room couch and sat him down and then sat next to him and kissing his cheek. She worked her way down the front of his shirt and unbuttoned his pants and slid his underwear down, allowing his “beast” loose.

She gasped when she saw the girth and the length of him, as she had never even seen something so amazing let alone have one inside of her. She got on all fours next to him, her face plunging toward his lap and her ass in the air, as she gripped him with one hand and gently slid the head of his erection into her mouth. Some semen had built up on the tip of him and the taste sent a chill down her spine. She felt as though it was the nectar of the gods and slid him further into her mouth until she had taken all she could into her throat without gagging.

She was proud of herself and he was surprised that she was able to take in as much as she had. The feeling of pleasure coursed through his body and when she slid her mouth up and down on his shaft, he thought he would erupt in her mouth right then.

WARNING - This book contains steamy romance scenes and is not suitable for all ages.
