World History, Volume II Since 1500 William J. Duiker, Jackson J. Spielvogel

From the Foreword: The genesis of this work has been twenty some years of classroom instruction. Throughout this time period my students have been my best teachers and this book is a reflection of what has been most successful with them. Many individuals helped to make these volumes possible. Nancy E. Crochiere, Clark Baxter, and especially Johanna Land at West Educational Publishing supported my ideas and efforts all along the way. No one could ask for a more supportive editor than Ms. Land, in particular, and I hope to work with her again on other projects for West. Equally supportive were numerous individuals on the Western Campus of Cuyahoga Community College. Of special note are my Provost, Mr. Ronald M. Sobel, my departmental colleague, Ms. Mary Hovanec, my word processor, Ms. Marianne Lesniak, and Ms. Mikki Shackelton, a former student. Last but not least I am particularly grateful to my trusted and true friend Mary Kay Howard of John Carroll University for our numerous "brainstorming sessions." Without their assistance, aid, and cooperation this work would not have been possible.
