Rattlesnake Island: A Contemporary Thriller Randall N. Dunn

Russian American police officer, Vanya Petrova, faces a conundrum: a ruthless killer has taken hostage the peaceful communities surrounding Lake Winnepesaukee, New Hampshire. And now he sets his deadly sights on her.

Officer Petrova stands on the beach of an island, investigating the unthinkable: a second double homicide in paradise. Someone is killing on her lake and the note in her hand indicates it's because of her. She wonders if the killer is the same person who is deadest on settling a grudge with her and her mother that began decades ago across the globe, deep in the Hindu Kush Mountains of Tajikistan and Afghanistan. And over the next six days this psychopath's goal is to shove Vanya into the abyss of insanity.

To his dismay, Vanya shoves back--fighting for her family, community and friends. She then fights for her very life in a desperate attempt to thwart an incipient mass casualty attack larger than the world has yet to witness.

Welcome to paradise lost.

Welcome to Vanya's nightmare.
