La Rondine in Full Score Giacomo Puccini

The Great War, the untimely death of Giulio Ricordi, and a fight with Giulio's son Tito conspired against La Rondine, making it Puccini's most underappreciated opera for more than eighty years. Far from deserving obscurity, it contains some of the master's most beautiful music and orchestration. This reprint of the 1917 full orchestral score published by Casa Musicale Sonzogno is ideal for reading or study. The sturdy spiral binding allows the score to easily lay flat when it is opened to any page.
