Three gorgeous men stroll into Morgan's bakery and her life will never be the same

For months, Morgan has been lightly flirting with a trio of the most handsome regular customers any single female could hope to have. She knows they're interested in her, but none of them steps forward and makes the first move.

Morgan would make that first move, if it weren't for an annoying problem -- she can't choose between them! What woman could?

When the day finally arrives that one of the brawny gents, Brandon, asks her out, she's thrilled. Yet she can't help regretting the loss of his two friends.

Morgan thinks she's prepared to settle for one. The men in her life think differently. Very differently. In fact, they're hoping she'll take three.

Warning -- Contains explicit language and graphic sex scenes only suitable for adults.

This short story is approximately 8,500 words long, 30 print pages.

Morgan's cousin Cecile's story is now available in the sequel, "Three for Cici" and it is also available to borrow through Kindle Unlimited.
