Treaty, between His Excellency the Honourable George Clinton, captain general and governor in chief of the province of New-York and the territories... Six Nations. Treaties New York (State).

"IT is well known in the Province of New-York, that the Six Nations of Indians depending in this Province, (called Iroquois by the French) had lately on several Occasions, appear'd dissatisfied and wavering in their Fidelity to the British Crown. No doubt, this was principally occasion'd by the Artifices of the French of Canada, who had constantly Emissaries among them: But at the same Time there is Reason to think, the suspicious Behaviour of these Nations, in Favour of their once inveterate Enemy the French, could not have arriv'd to the Pitch it did, otherwise than by some Neglects or Misconduct of those who were entrusted by the Government of New-York with the Management of the Indian Affairs."

This is an edition of a classical book first published in the eighteenth century.
