So you're planning a game day party. You have your decorations ready, your guest list intact, the date and time picked out, the house and big screen are clean... only there's one problem.

What are you going to serve all those people??

Don't worry, I've got you covered! I've thrown many game day parties (and game day themed birthday parties for my four boys), and time and again I've used the recipes that are in this book and they are always a crowd-pleaser. From appetizers to main menu items and even a sweet recipe, this book covers everything. Soon you'll be kicking up your feet, enjoying your game and good food and nobody will leave hungry.

Score!
