- Cliff Hague, Emeritus Professor of Heriot-Watt University and Past President of the Royal Town Planning Institute

Study Skills for Town and Country Planning is a basic introduction to studying planning, a 'how to' for students to develop a relevant skill set to succeed in their degree, and a guide to applying those skills in a very practical and diverse workplace.

Clearly written and accessible, the book includes:

- Up-to-date case studies, providing real examples of applying the relevant tools and techniques covered in the book
- Practical activities, such as preparing and practising presentations and drafting short reports
- 'Tips for Success'
- Suggestions for further reading
- a Glossary explaining new terms

This student-focused guide provides an introduction to the study skills associated with town and country planning for anyone considering or already studying a planning related course.
