The Storyteller's Tarot offers a different and exciting approach to using Tarot in a creative and therapeutic way. In this book tarot combines with story to double the magic, creating a tool for personal, spiritual and creative development. Part one shows how Tarot and Story, working together, can be used to create, inspire and heal, providing stimulating and innovative ways for tarot students, teachers and therapists to use tarot with story to enrich their understanding of both arts. Part one also provides tried and tested instructions on creating your own Tarot stories for individuals and groups. Part two contains 78 original stories of the magical and mundane, each expressing the energy of a card and a unique table of correspondances linking the Tarot with myth, legend, fairy tale and classic and modern fiction.
