Persia is rich in folk lore. For hundreds and hundreds of years the stories in this book, and many others as well, have been told to the wondering boys and girls of that country, who, as they hear them, picture their native land as one of roses and tulips, where beautiful fairies build their castles in the rosy morn, and black gnomes fly around in the darkness of midnight. The stories in this collection are: (1) The Cat and the Mouse, (2) The Son of the Soap Seller, (3) The King's Treasure, and (4) The King and the Fisherman. The stories in this edition are amply illustrated. It is a pleasure to publish this new, high quality, and affordable edition of these timeless stories.
