Cop-shapeshifter Tessa Holly may live forever, but her life will never be her own. Her people, Ireland's Tuatha dé Danann (Clan of Danu), brought magic and mystery to the island. Called Fair Folk, Sidhe and Shining Ones, Dananns now obey rules protecting them from fearful humans and envious Formorians, ancient enemies with equal abilities but ordinary lifespans. Clan rules control every aspect of Tessa's life--friendships, career, even marriage.

But when her brother and a human girl fall victim to Formorians bent on stealing Danann longevity for themselves, the Clan goes silent. Tessa must rely on the girl's father, archaeologist Sam McHugh--a man no one trusts--to lead her through ancient places of Ireland and Britain in search of her people's Four Great Treasures. Together with allies, they'll use the treasures to rescue the captives, call goddess Danu, and preserve the Danann way of life.

Along the way, Tessa discovers a power greater than any she's known, one that shakes her faith in her Clan and its rules. But if she uses this power during the crucial confrontation with Formorians, will she save--or destroy--her people?
